REPORT ON THE ONE AFRICA FREEDOM DIALOGUE; THE NEXT AFRICA; THE NEW REGIONALISM.

Africa is the next center of hope for the Global Anatomy. Africa is the new center for Global Transformation. The African Anatomy has never been one of low standards or mediocrity. The People of Africa have never been poor psychologically, intellectually, physically, socially or spiritually. The Giants of Africa have never been people of mediocrity. We have rather allowed ourselves to be brainwashed and misrepresented in the Global fronts of the Global Anatomy. However, now is the time for us to take back what belongs to us. Now is the time for us to take back our hereditary and original lanes. Now is the time for us to take back our wealth. Now is the time for us to revolutionize Africa. We have phenomenal doctors and herbalists, scientists, footballers, pastors, teachers, economists, farmers and technocrats in Africa. We have a whole range of excellent Africans who are ready to change the horizons of the Global Anatomy. The time is now, and AFRICAN VOICES INTERNATIONAL entreats all Africans to go back to their lanes, and work with purpose, for the next Africa, we must emerge into, to serve as the new regionalism of excellence, in all areas and fields of governance, in the Global Anatomy.

AFRICAN VOICES INTERNATIONAL sees a new phase in the history of Africa, where Global Leadership will take place from the soil of Africa, and by the people of Africa. Now is the time. AFRICAN VOICES INTERNATIONAL entreats all youths from Africa to stand up, fight the battle and see the change right flowing from Mother Africa.

The future is in the hands of the youth now. The circles are turning round. The story is changing. We are about to dominate in all ministries of development in the Global Anatomy. This is the time for Africans to rise up. The way is forward only. We cannot retrogress. We are on a stage for continuous progression. The mantle is on us and we must perform phenomenally. We are going to challenge all the negative status quos in our societies and reform the Global Anatomy, right back to the standards of Freedom, it must lie in. This revolution starts right from the African soil.

We must build ourselves. We must create the future. Everything is in our hands and if we see it, we can bring it into reality; THE NEXT AFRICA; THE NEW REGIONALISM. Let us rise up. Let us all do it. Let us support each other. We are one people with a common destiny and so must we hold our hands together and fight the Battle to sustain the Freedom, Africa needs. Let us do it. Let us revolutionize the Global Anatomy, right from Africa. We are the changemakers. We are the pacesetters. We can do it. Let us make it happen.

PROBLEMS CONFRONTING THE AFRICAN ANATOMY

1. CORRUPTION

Corruption is one of the major factors that has brought the African Anatomy down to a life of mediocrity. We have misplaced priorities. Our agendas are always to bring us receipts to satisfy our families and internal surroundings. We never think of the nation at large. Leaders nowadays come into power with their own agendas to satisfy their parochial desires. They come to amass wealth for themselves and forget about the actual reason, they were voted and chosen to lead their nations. This has brought stagnation in development to the nation. Our economies have remained bankrupt and we are sinking. Our desires are always to see fruition in the short term. Our leaders destroy the future of posterity by leaving power in bankruptcy, leading to foreign domination. Today, we have our resources controlled by foreign allies. We have been subjected to slavery right from our land, because we did not plan and think right.

2. ENVY

Jealousy has crept into our societies in Africa and has killed the seeds that has been planted by our forefathers, for the growth and development, we need in our nations. Africans do not want to see their fellow African Brothers and Sisters growing up. We have all it takes right from the Health to Technological Industry. We have all the technocrats and leaders we need for the change we need in the African Anatomy. However, we have allowed envy to dictate how we must relate each other. This Social Evil has brought chaos and divisors in our nations and has left African nations in abject poverty and bankruptcy. Africans will go all the way to kill people who want to cause a change in the society. We have created a bad name for ourselves that no one wants to even help us.

3. DICTATORSHIP

Majority of current African leaders are dictators. They do rule based on their own terms and conditions that suits them. They do not consider the plight of the majority and/or the entire citizenry at heart. They work to suit themselves and sabotage the integrity of the state. Their objectives are only geared towards satisfying a particular group or fraternity or region of people, in their National Anatomy. They rule anyhow and take over power for a long time without handing over. This brings distaste on the side of passionate upcoming youth with the desire to also bring change in their societies. Nations are now becoming ruled out of kleptocratic rules, leaving the heart of the people on standby. This is how the African Society is being led and that is why Africa has been stagnant till now.

4. LAWLESSNESS

Not only are African leaders dictatorial, but the situation becomes worse as the citizens are also lawless. Citizens of the African Anatomy do not adhere to the laid down laws, rules and regulations of their countries. They live anyhow and out their countries into debts and shame. Most citizens do not give their nations the respect she deserves. They treat their nations as a foreign entity. You find people littering around, mishandling state property, coming to work late and leaving early, misusing government funds and not complying with various implemented directives by their states. Everyone lives anyhow and expects their nations to progress. People pit their countries into filth and expect their countries to be clean. We create our own pit and expect to be living in Freedom. Until we adapt to laid down laws, rules and regulations that promote Freedom, the African Anatomy would be found wanting.

5. LACK OF DISCIPLINE

The African Anatomy lacks discipline. There is no set path of order, through which we adhere to. We do things our own way and neglect the various tenets and etiquettes, as well as the standards set in our societies, organisations and institutions, we work in. We always go contrary to the rules and regulations to the set standards in our societies, and deem it as normal as humans. This is what has brought mediocrity and backwardness, in our way of living. We always crave for the best, but do not follow the standards that will lead to excellence. Our leaders have also lost balance in their leadership strategies. They give various promises during their campaigns and come to power to serve themselves and not their nations. This is what has created an imbalance between our efforts and the results, we expect.

THE WAY FORWARD TO CORRECTING OUR SHORT COMINGS IN THE AFRICAN ANATOMY

1. CREATION OF LONG TERM PLANS

The African Anatomy needs to be very systematic to see a change in Africa. We must create long term plans that can satisfy all our short term goals and nullify all barriers to development, in our countries. Most often, countries in Africa are fond of implementing short term plans to satisfy the short term duration. We only think about the immediate, forgetting about the latter, and land ourselves into debts and recessions. We must be able to independently structurise our systems in a way that caters for long term plans, to be able to satisfy the immediate and the latter. We must look far into the future and see what we want, implement measures to achieve what we want, and also adapt security measures that will proactively safeguard us from unwanted threats and collapses.

2. PATRIOTISM

Africans must begin to cherish their homeland and value their soil. Africans must begin to be concerned about the welfare of their nations, over their own selfish desires. When Africans put the welfare of their nations on the front, Africa can begin to sustain her acceleration on Development. This is because people will be much careful with their deeds and pay more attention to the growth of the nation. This will lead to state properties being treated with care, quality and efficient services offered by civil servants and private sector workers which will safeguard the integrity of the state. The African Anatomy can thrive when nations in Africa are valued. There will be equitable development everywhere, which will lead to the New Africa, everyone desires.

3. LOVE AND UNITY

The African Anatomy has lacked a sense of Love and Unity, which has eluded us of the harmony, we need as an Anatomy to move forward. We are full of various divisions and segregations which do not augur well with the Freedom, we need. If we want to thrive, the way forward is for us to love each other, cherish each other, respect and celebrate each other for their various talents and standings in the society. This is how, everyone can be motivated to push forward and play various phenomenal roles for the change, we want in our societies. We need to love and respect each other, stand as one with the diverse tribes, we have in our societies, support genuine democratic leaders, stand for Justice, tranquility and walk as one people. We must be willing

4. JUSTICE

Power most often has been used wrongly. Leaders and people in high authorities use their power to dissipate through unwarranted means, to amass wealth and fetch various forms of receipts, for themselves. People are suffering from abject poverty and living miserable lives, all because certain people have decided to misuse their power, misdefine it and work with them, in the wrong way. Loads of lives are dying daily because Order is not thriving in our Political Anatomies. As a matter of urgency, Justice must be adhered to at all times. The Rule of Law in our countries, must not be misinterpreted. Every individual no matter his or her status in Africa, must be under the Constitutional settings and Laws of their National Anatomies. This is how the New Africa can stand. Let us not be hypocritical with our dispositions but be good citizens who adhere to the well laid down laws, rules and regulations of our land. AFRICAN VOICES INTERNATIONAL entreats every individual to stand tall for Freedom. This is how we can breakthrough and make the African Anatomy, the new Regionalism of Industrial, Economic and Democratic Revolution in the Global Anatomy.

5. YOUTH PARTICIPATION IN DEVELOPMENT

Youths must be given the Freedom to participate in playing key roles, in affecting the development of their National Anatomies. Youths must be respected for who they are, and be given opportunities that will help them make a better living, to contribute much better for the development of their National Anatomies. Youths must be not be left aside. They must in included in Nation Building. The voices of youths must be heard. Youth Ministries in the Political Anatomies of Africa, must embark on policies that allow youths to have a fair percentage as a parliamentary anatomy, in the creation, modification and regulation of laws, rules, orders and regulations in their National Anatomies. This is how Freedom will continuously thrive, in Africa. AFRICAN VOICES INTERNATIONAL entreats all Governments of African Countries to embark on youth projects, that will steer their path, in promoting their contribution to National Development. This should be done urgently and passionately, and in this democratic dispensation, can the African Anatomy thrive.

WORD FROM FREEDOM LEGEND CHRISTOPHER NSIAH

We must be able to create long term plans for a possible future, without defects and interruptions. If Africa wants to thrive, then a strategy must be sustained in the long term to secure the Africa, we need. When we create short term plans, we are not able to cater for ourselves in times of urgent demands and emergencies. But when we create long term plans, everything is accommodated into the plan. Let's think of posterity. Let's not just think of the next few years. Let's create a developmental plan, that is realistic to meet our goals, in the long run. That is how Africa can work, thrive and Survive. I Love Africa and it is my dream to see an Africa that works for herself, in the long term run, because we implemented long term goals. Let us do it.
